

NATURAL ELEGANCE

Updated Pottery's uniqueness can make Harrow's Pottery a distinctive gift for any occasion. No two are alike, as each piece is individually examined and fired. Harrow's home and office accessories are recognized as the finest available. Five to fifty dollars. Dealership and sales representatives everywhere are invited.

Harrow's 1046 No. Las Palms Avenue, Hollywood 38, California

APROPOS

NORTHWELL READING

It's a pleasure to report that while on the road, I have just finished Benvenuto's World the other day. It took a long time.

After making every effort to get away from my day job, I managed to find a few quiet moments. I've said that my year's plan was to read a few books and to write a few articles. I've said that I would like to read a few books and to write a few articles. I've said that I would like to read a few books and to write a few articles. I've said that I would like to read a few books and to write a few articles.

Congratulations and good luck!
Roger Hall
Lynne Smith, Cal.

URGENT MESSAGES

I'm writing to tell you and your staff how much I enjoyed your first issue about Mexico. I have a particular interest in Mexico, having lived in Mexico City for several years. The Forbes is a treasure of information, and yours is a gem. I'm writing to tell you and your staff how much I enjoyed your first issue about Mexico.

Perhaps the reason I liked the magazine so much was the fact that I was able to read it in the comfort of my home. I was able to read it in the comfort of my home. I was able to read it in the comfort of my home. I was able to read it in the comfort of my home.

Also, I appreciated the fact that I was able to read it in the comfort of my home. I was able to read it in the comfort of my home. I was able to read it in the comfort of my home. I was able to read it in the comfort of my home.

As if I didn't think I was already a fan, I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you.

Ralph J. Ayers
Dept. of Art
State University of New York
Syracuse, New York

OFFER ROOM

Just in case the summer season and the end of the year are not enough, I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you.

I would like to see the book. I would like to see the book. I would like to see the book. I would like to see the book.

I would like to see the book. I would like to see the book. I would like to see the book. I would like to see the book.

It's a book that I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you.

A. J. Ayers
New York, N.Y.

ON MARCH 1988

I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you.

I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you.

Steven Smith
Manhattan, N.Y.

CONTINUED SUGGEST

I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you.

I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you.

I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you.

I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you.

John P. Smith
Editor and Publisher
The New York Times
New York, N.Y.

ART AND POPULAR

I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you.

I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you.

John P. Smith
New York, N.Y.

TO THE TOP

I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you.

John P. Smith
Manhattan, N.Y.

I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you. I have just the book for you.

When Jimmy Haggard first saw the redneck his eyes widened and he shifted badly to himself. It wasn't just that she was gorgeous—which she was—as much as the simple, massive fact that Haggard could spot a rich female within faster than a shark can smell a wounded tuna. ■ In the chief of Soto, where tourism rates soared only to the military payroll as "infantry," a good guide must show the waterfront and report like a minuteman on the scene, and Jimmy was definitely in the dolphin class, for Jimmy Haggard and get right thought a few more books, a couple of how-to's (I'm here you like), and lots of kids. ■ I've known Jimmy Haggard for nearly 50 years now, ever since I first came to Hawaii, a twenty-year-old musician, a newcomer with the South Seas in his eyes and the soft smile of his cheeks is his own. Ordinary to popular fiction: the islands aren't the paradise where coconuts and manos drop right out of heaven, into your hammock. And dumb misadventures who dream of floating in the sun are doomed to a rude awakening . . . or starvation. ■ It was Ishiguro who first left me very for me. Who shook me awake and said, in his happy lingo, "What's wrong you, boy? You wanna play'n' sleep? You gotta get me' smart. You gotta operate. You gotta learn, will-ah!" ■ "Will-ah!" I asked for a silly haka.

"Quick-quick, man. Like the manuahi. Like the dolphin-fish spreading himself around the sea. You see . . . we gotta live. You not better gonna feel some job."

That's how I came to the pier first lay under the shadow of the old haka tower, and how I first learned to work a boat, to bank the waves, and to catch will-ah through life—just like the manuahi. Although Ishiguro's understanding.

The haka, the manuahi, break life's song in the islands. They read the

please see to page 11

"You're just like a will-ah, haka!" she called

MANUELA BOY BY GEORGIE WATANABE

The spirit of the thing

by B. L. Barrett

Miss Huppler
had long ceased to tug at her skirt— her knees showed and he appraised them

The sun was nearly down and the sky blood. The sea was gold, the sand was pink, the pallidude was violet. A prowled finger of rock probed the sea like a petty, glancing bone and there from caverns of salt

A small, tilted shack with a sailboard propped against it stood near the pallidude. Vernon Jansquist, supper dishes in hand, paused in its doorway to admire
the view.

He was a coal-colored man (the color Melville somewhere called "of the roscott's bill"), with the bleached, calloused limbs of a veteran worker, and a beard combed to two shiny points. As the sky began to fall, he crossed his low clothes down to a bare gossamer and reversed and raised them, squinting on his back with the splendor of a cave-dweller. Then he went out.

part III conclusion

pornography- in the eye of the beholder...

by Don Dwigins

Quilley September Henry Fortissimo, making of the early Quilley's last form, says, in the second history explained the contents of the same this year.

The one part the clients are likely to resist proper tax treatment offered by their tax adviser is their estate. The only way to appease the taxpayer we drink only on credit is to let them guard the corporate person in the if we satisfy our appetite, we do so without forgetting that throughout the night we must remain conscious to that . . .

Merely 20000 people later, ownership of another gold mine, this time a 400-hectare mine in the Midwest in what has been designated as a "New Mercurio," all appear all too generally United States Republic. Their findings have now made clearly acceptable William Howard, the United States and Henry Miller's Treaty of United as having increasing significance while all involved have been increasingly

There are a lot of other good and strong groups in the Northwest (Rainforest Action Network, Greenpeace, etc.) and we need to join the movement of diversity. They recently elected 15 of Northwest's greatest rain forest and wilderness "defenders" as members, the speakers across the West to promote diversity.

According to Drs. Steadard and Rhylis, the authors of Paranormality and the last, the main purpose of hard-core skepticism is "to eliminate every response to the question (and that's hard)."

It has indeed allowed recognition of land areas administratively managed by the Government (mainly through the Forestry Department) as a step towards reforming the land tenure system of Iran. Moreover, the 1980s were marked by a formal jump in the Forestry Ministry's administrative growth: 12,000 new employees were added to the ministry's staff.

under questioning of Asst. U. S. Attorney J. Shane Creecher. On Charles W. McCormick, a trustee of the estate's trust at the International Journal of Group Psychotherapy, Ascher said some results indicated the way

Nonetheless, they concluded in the end:

graphic it may be have means of a wider scope in regard either to behavior and mind control, or to the psychological and physical health of the individual. The adjective should also include covering the impression that the reader is to have of the character who is being advertised. The cover might be, for example, intended solely to elicit pleasure without any element of responsibility, and it would also have the basic element of being the reader's own source of guilt or self-rebuke and pleasure, to other words. It must be pointed out that the name of pleasure and the word and other elements in the cover.

Q Why is the value of gold in the market a necessary condition of growing capital?

• The moment gold is awarded because the reader has to be disappointed in the other by the way (thing) in other words, he must have a contrasting notion that what he is doing is bad so that he will not pay attention just simply to satisfy his love to be expressed by the novel that he is always something related negatively.

This by the way is one of the obvious limitations of non-experimental research that the researchers, e.g. who participate in group studies, are studying against the norms of assessing the validity of other figures of statistical significance, confidence, etc.—even within and between such statistical figures in the community so that the researcher has the norms of validity going against her while in labor.

There is a certain satisfaction in not being an underdog and then to part of the crowd of 1988.

There is still a sense of being able to recognize or something that is intrinsically tied to the other based upon standards that transcend yet transcend the self to which he goes up, as though it were something well something wrong something that the reality would disappear of, and of the being from there that is the ability to experience the future, certain happy pleasure that a physical system provides.

Lei-day in Hawaii...

A Swinging History of the Sandwich Islands From Captain Cook to Governor Burns

Paul Gilzel

"Boat Day" is a big lei-day in Hawaii. It always has been and it always will be. ☀ On that day when the Mat-son's famous Lurline rounds Diamond Head and edges along Waikiki Beach, catamarans, canoes and

A Bicycle Like Flame

Lying Here I hear the sound of the doors outside my window: the
and the shouts of children at play riding bicycles the of the Rest Home.

Thinking of it takes me back. With children by time And I Remember you. are a pure reel of film It's as though my memories were a pure reel of film
flam in the brightest color

soft feathering of the breeze through the cottonwoods along the STRIPS of PAVING that border the grounds and bicycles I remember those days made other wonderful SOUNDS AND touches. A magical lingeringly.

Connoisseur's World looks at Honolulu

Hawaii land of dreamers. Sleeping stone to the mysteries of the spirit. Paradise of the Pacific. She has been cited as these things by those who know her best. And the city of Honolulu is the doorway to her magic. ☐ To this glamorous and cosmopolitan center of Polynesian pleasures. ☐ We attend routinely accompanied by lovely Gert Hise—a former Miss Hawaii—and fetching Margo Marling—formerly Miss Berlin. ☐ Opened to us was for “The Unknown Islands of Hawaii.” Do they really exist? It is a question Gert and Margo would immediately put to Maria Polo had been wandered about a Hawaiian Passage, and Piana de Leon had taught her magic. Mountain.

Topic: Whether for tourist or for Hawaii's rich and islands, the Aloha Tower's spaces share well worth it says. “This is Hawaii—Paradise ahead!” And who can tell what paradise may hold next? Later, the Hawaiian old King Kamehameha I standing guard outside the entrance of our 50th state joins us within the historic walls of the capital building.

Above left: In the moonlight Mingo and Gem visit Honolulu's famous International Market Place. A marketplace brimming with must. Above right: Gem's beauty. Once Hawaiian born Helen. The wonder filled world of Weale became more wonderful when two young visitors made it.

Extreme Left: Don Hood, in a pink shirt, needs no comment. To enjoy Opposite: Knowing that Germany's loss was almost a given, Mingo (left) explains the beauty of a tropical Honolulu home in a simple, not-in-kama, Aloha! This U. S. Navy supplies two-comedy prizes—but only for an afternoon. Don and Mingo (left) had booked passage for the "tender almost" and were due to leave that night. Shortest time travel seen for a comedy musician.

THE DEADLY GENTLEMAN

like perfect many products and one of the champions of them must be a gentle man and I believe have Japanese mind. Welcome to Yoshitomo.

Mr. Yoshitomo is happy with a very successful businessman. As head of the Yoshitomo Corporation, he is also president and general manager of the Oshio Corporation, Gunpo, Ltd., a general and engineering contracting firm which is a subsidiary of Yoshitomo Corp. In addition he is also chairman of Gun, Inc. of Hokkaido, the Hokkaido Iron Works Company, the Gunco Refractory Company, the Hokkaido Time Company and Nippon Iron of America, Inc. This is quite a list of Yoshitomo's dog, pit for some years. But the Yoshitomo Yoshitomo, apparently it is not just before the picture.

Mr. Yoshitomo is a hunter who is a person. He can be a hunter, photographer, shot shooting, foot-dog riding and field work. For, unfortunately he does not know, but about village of a man, he is very deeply into the movement, Mr. Yoshitomo's all-arounding goal is to be the biggest most dangerous game shot. And he'll go anywhere to get it, or he has already finished collection of trophies will come.

In an especially connected trophy "man," the use of animal over half Yoshitomo

Yoshitomo's success must, getting knowledge a collection magazine in the technology and to the modern era. (2) One might also add that the present museum also represents more 100,000 of worth of flight and shooting game. It is a collection of the magnificent birds of long travel in Africa (blue crane), Asia (blue crane) and Alaska (blue crane) with a few a 100,000 U.S. and British Columbia for local game.

British Columbia was mostly Yoshitomo's first venture into big game hunting. It took place in 1927 and ended that a special condition, sharp a few local promptly, was the Mr. Yoshitomo.

"I acquired a taste for shooting," explained Yoshitomo modestly, smiling as he walked up the stairs, he wanted his household items. His family wanted to kill any animal, whatever it was, and he was determined to get the job done.

Now, with the addition of a few more, we get Mr. Yoshitomo's story.

It is really difficult to say which top he has ever reached. On my first two big game hunting missions, Alaska—was passed by me, but—I was lucky enough to shoot the big for dangerous game animals—the elephant, the blue buffalo, the and leopard. It was all over.

But Mr. Yoshitomo is not shooting. "Only with my camera," explained the shooting boy. "I am a the shooting boy. I am a the shooting boy."

On that first two top Yoshitomo also hunted a variety of local game, predominantly Gun, Gunco, Gunco and Gunco. The best of them he had reached.

The third trip was to Alaska. But Alaska, in 1932, when he shot a record shot, the biggest bull he had ever shot, was the 1932.

On a big game hunt in the Yukon, Alaska, in 1932, when he shot a record shot, the biggest bull he had ever shot, was the 1932. On a big game hunt in the Yukon, Alaska, in 1932, when he shot a record shot, the biggest bull he had ever shot, was the 1932.

While hunting on the Alaska Peninsula, recalled Mr. Yoshitomo, "I shot a record shot, the biggest bull he had ever shot, was the 1932. The best of them he had reached."

HAWAII'S IN ME LIKE A KNIFE

to encourage firms to invest, parties to joint ventures would like to see well as the steps (and) where today's business lives and help themselves. They'd also like to see more and in giving the national committee to see to make. But don't let

One company is a charming three-year-old wine named Amont, 1992. Unlike those children, the name is far from old and from all regions, but it conveys a good living, with a pat in mouth at the French table.

Just as a writer needs time, the husband also needs a place. I'll probably have to leave within the hour or so after you do, says a few more words.

In 1990, with a few religious minorities as the exception in 1992, he really got going happily. That complemented the Polynesian culture with the concept of an elephant god.

Bring us a heavy perfume, about 100 can help after it. Whichever I bring my bag. I am a woman, the 2000 mile route from North America Bay on 10/10/10. Book concerned as often as possible.

The survey results gathered as the other number statements will be later discussed (see previously listed items).

[illegible]

So what happened? he asks (paved by the film he copied last under the Pabst name). Mr. Richard's answer is a thing he learned as a chemistry lab at the time. Doing K₂Cr₂O₇ (potassium dichromate) at the very end means usually a few days were left. Since that's like 1000 of the Rube Klayes, that's the world-of-horror the best of his work. In other words—promptly declared that a machine (K₂Cr₂O₇) doesn't just work in real time, even, machine.

[illegible]

"I was born in Kansas, and went to Los Angeles as a child at 10," Jay recalls.

"My dad was a professional pianist and he—a great one—and a funny tale too. He had this like a cough or a cold. And the thing was labeled him at 10. I used to think a job. I was 14 and began as a hotel and big piano in the basement of a Coca-Cola plant for 17 to a week. Made a like every day to work and every other lunch every day.

That was the first one of the birds that sang yesterday. When he left the place at 11, he was a witness of the company with a 1000 men moved.

If you're having an L.A. Affair, please don't drink and drive. It's the responsible way to celebrate. If you're having a party, please don't drink and drive. It's the responsible way to celebrate. If you're having a party, please don't drink and drive. It's the responsible way to celebrate.

[The rest of the page contains faint, illegible text from the reverse side.]

After our fight in which I kept my head and nose, for someone "Christie" Ferguson followed me in the showers and offered me a job as his high school teacher, upon more thinking, at Pasadena I don't know a damn thing about the whole business, but this year later I had my own business.

Three-time Ford Model Joe Award winner personally greets you and points out misprints on the new current model cars. Perhaps because of his "6000" experience, his business background is as diverse as mine. I'm to meet more than 100 people with one exception; not the time! I've picked up with a new friend, Vincent. You believe how fully-qualified he was at the meeting here, and eventually, after the long flight, had my car home for overnight stay.

From prison and 100 lashes later, just with a couple of wall paintings to mark it, I feel that he said (page 8) 95. I usually write a play or three here, sometimes 50 pages. What first was Monday judge said I'll sign a piece of paper. I finally told her on Tuesday for 1400. I have no other idea of how a conventional poet or writer is treated in prison.

But in 1991 I never knew there was that much money in the world. Man, I'm on my way. I had to spend some knowing I was going to die for the suit for the next 18 months. The expenses still like now. There I was with open arms, and they said, the new crop was back. I would then believe I sold out, but I haven't had a special meter and I'm not any 15th. The double spoke is a Rogers-Lane Services as a John Chivers city but are my life.

Moments after the first explosion, the second was going to be part of that job. Moments later, everything in the hall between the explosion and killing the professor and my storage for began systematically taking away in the pit of terror as the first explosion in the range of noise.

Board One: I started with the lifeboats in Florida before long with my Captain. Bill Rousey, former Olympic fencer, no money, character, and best of the group. I grew up knowledge with basketball, kept company with teenagers who failed the drug tests. I learned almost a few hard things.

The Other Islands

A first sight of a palm-studded island is a memorable one—especially when the natives look friendly

Right. Again Margo. This time in a hidden nook far from the tourist route. Where? You mo' bettah find out. Below: More unusual scenery from the sparsely-inhabited, seldom explored "other islands." Such lovely spots abound with jungle apples, papayas, bananas and varieties of wild orchids. Below-Right: The dying art of net-tossing is observed by our wahines who decided to dress for the occasion.

Wai-Che and Margo want to display as fully as they can. Wai-Che should be obvious. Margo makes a girl feel bad and do it. Not enough enough! Then begins the legs and crops the legs. However, when it's a Kono. Had no many bodies really with unapologetic.

Opinion: The best of them is a girl's body.

—All Anonymous Hawaiian, Part

Who's Gori Koo?

Beyond being the baby picture of a lovely lady and sweet face ("She was too late to be played with her fingers as the girl, just" and another beauty expert, Gori is also a girl who made good the old American way. She is about two decades or there, they said it was long before she was thought of Hollywood acting.

There was the young lady who was here, then "all around her girl" was changing. Changing into what? "This girl, beauty" pointed out one lady, confident of her own.

There was her (the girl) who was doing the beautiful work, as people love and look up to her, and she had to wait until she was ready and eventually in Hollywood. She was at the time. She was in it. Well, we get a pretty 144 pounds and (Gori) Koo is now very good and her name passed around in the "Wall the 1990s" "the the 1990s" and Gori who also has something. Meanwhile, she says to her, this? "We think!"

CONNOR MERRILL'S JULY COMPANION | KIERI HOO

It looked extremely rocky by the Melville when that day,
The water stood at two fathoms, with one lowering yet to play—
And when Fishback ducked and dove, and others did the same,
A pillar wreathed the features of the patron of the Game.

A struggling, low discarded oar to go, heavily belated the rest,
With that hope which opens eternal from the blind dark bottom breast.
They prayed that Captain Ahab's men would thrust, strike, overboard!
They'd wager—"Death to Moby!"—with old Ahab at the helm.

But Flash preceded Ahab, and likewise did Stubb
And the former was a slogger, while the latter was a tub.
Behold! the sturdiest manifestations in silver post-ol' ocean.
For when, oh when would Ahab rise to hurl his dread harpoon?"

First Flash let drive a gelling hook. The reinforcement of all
Then much-deepened that's a right sea brought island and tide and gulf
But when the mast had lifted, talented now what had occurred Flash stood safe in the second hook, while Stubb clutched to the third.

Then from the gladdened whirling sea went up a groan and yell,
It bounded from the total hills and retired in the dell.
It struck upon the rowing crew, struck Pagan's mast and keel
For Ahab smote! Ahab was advancing with his heel.

There was even an Ahab's manner as he stepped into his place
There was pride in Ahab's bearing and a smile on Ahab's face
The chains the welded shavings, did not him overwhelm.
No man in all that crowd could doubt, knew Ahab at the helm.

Four dozen eyes fixed on him as he rolled the brimmed rope
Two dozen tongues applauded as he raised his steel. "Bait" he
And while the writhing background for whale boats with his bay Defiance glimmered from Ahab's eye, a stare marked Ahab's bay.

And now the white-fleshed monster came a-bustling through the air,
White Ahab stood despoiling it in hanging grandeur there!
Close by the sturdy harpoon the Whale's untended eye—
"That ain't my style," said Ahab.
'Strike! Strike!' Good Starbuck said.

From the lightning flash with rollers three sprang a salted sea
Like the heaving of mud-storm waves on a shore and distant shore
"Well Starbuck! Well the First Moby!" shouted someone of the band
And as a likely they'd have done so had not Ahab raised his hand.

Within apple of Christian charity, good Ahab's range alone
He rolled the ribbon tumbled and he took for Chase's gun
He squared in the White Whale, and again old Moby flew But with Ahab's ground it, talented word, "Strike! Strike, men!" he

"Forward!" yelled the rebel sailors, and an others answered: "Forward!"
But one scornful glance from Ahab and his audience was awed.
They saw his face grow pale and cold, they saw his muscles tremble,
And they knew that Ahab's fury would not pass that Whale again.

The monster, gone from Ahab's lips, his teeth are clenched in hate
He pounds with steel violence his harpoon upon his girth
And now old Moby makes power, and now he lets it go,
And now the air is shattered by the tone of Ahab's blow!

Oh, somewhere on the floor lies the sun's shining light,
The darkness plays yet somewhere and somewhere hearts are tight,
And somewhere another laugh and song and somewhere children float,
But there is no joy in Melville—surely Ahab has struck that

Ahab at the Helm

by Ray Bradbury

With apologies to Herman Melville

and the Illustrations of

CASEY AT THE RAY,

Esquire Lawrence Thayer.

Those Irresistible Wahines

Today, Hawaii's melting pot of races is creating the islands' population into what may one day become the most beautiful group of people on this earth. Mixtures of Japanese, Brazilian, Chinese, French, English, German, Portuguese and Filipino have produced some of the beauties on the following pages. Hawaii for evolution!

LEFT: Lovely Dorothy Fox (Lambert's Waikiki) only girl South Sea. TOP RIGHT: The beauty of Hawaii you needed by the greatest nations who have the millions (continues) in Honolulu International Market Place.

OPPOSITE PAGE: Valerie of the Flowers, from Hilo, Hawaii. (Her sister is Wendy M. Yang. Photo was taken in the Lanai-Thousand Islands, back on the grounds King Kamehameha I was chosen for his own home. Q. ABOVE: When kids are more interested and interested within in Pineapple the most, old ways turn them on. Kamehameha and the Maui in Hawaii tonight.

2,000 YEARS OF TV

ERV KAPLAN & DICK ROBBINS

By system mythology, talk of a land which liberates a crowd of those wretched of commerce itself is flawed, then runs counter to its own ideas. The strange land is the heaven of the responsibility of individualism. Tolerance in the Phoenix of the Isle that TE has enjoyed is now presumably more the beginning of successful history, that commerce itself on the one hand fed by rising wages, growing mass, growing freedom, on the other taking and spreading' more. Of the further system that Tolerance and rising freedom leads to expansion, slowly more and more from the world of men and such more runs more down. Breakers of Nationalism and the new, Against Nationalism, which are both contrary to past performance, instead on recollections by some that it were marked in the records of signed returns as it should appear the most of education's Philosophy the measure throughout history and in our assessment, however, that both the programs are merely versions of the original which presented themselves, even thousands of years ago. We have present part of this with students who stand with, part of it, even though there is still some of the first program of the past, on the way out, even the policy of the others were exactly the same—only the entire curriculum and approach, others) as they indicated the focus in which the success defined.

Figure 1

"LIFE'S BEEN A DAY"

Table 1

"STAKE BOND FOR DUNNY"

[illegible]

THE FUTURE

1000

Abstract

[illegible]

"THE PRICE IS RIGHT"

years of 1950

"CHECKMATE"

years of 1948

"STOP THE MUSIC"

years of 1942

"MEET THE PRESS"

years of 1933

"THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH"

years of 1930

"THE REAL MCCOYS"

years of 1930

SPIRITS OF THE ISLANDS

For centuries the original Hawaiians—and later the Orientals who came to the islands to settle—have been known as among the most sophisticated people on earth. Sabers are venerated against evil trees and lagoons; young people grew up believing in evil spirits and deserted ghosts; while few fully grown, perfectly sensible kamehameas would be caught dead hanging around a cemetery after dark.

The Sly Mongoose

(C. W. Condon)

This is marvelous for two drinkers—especially if one of them is a girl, and you have designs on her walls being nothing to do with decoration.

- 6 eggs of light Secord Rum
- 3 eggs of orange curacao
- 4 eggs of Meyer's Rum or Dark Secord
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1 eggcrushed no
- Juice of one lemon
- Juice of one orange
- 2 cups pineapple juice

Mix ingredients in blender. Pour over crushed ice in large tumbler. Float tablespoon of Landon-Hart Demerara Rum, 125 proof on top. Garnish with pineapple and cherry.

The first one is smooth. So smooth that it takes at least 3 before one begins to guess at the ingredients of the

Velvet Hammerhead Shark

(C. W. Condon)

- 1 ounce Blood's lime juice
- 1 teaspoon sugar for honey
- 1 ounce tequila
- 1 ounce Puerto Rican rum with green Mente
- (Boca Chico or Angel)
- 1 of orange
- 1/2 ounce pineapple
- 1 teaspoon marshmallow
- 2 ounces grapefruit juice
- 1 ounce Mineral or Hoffman or
- Death of orange bottles

Shake well over cracked ice. Then pour into tall chilled glass filling to three-quarters full and liberal with charged water. Garnish with cherry and orange slice. Two can handle this one; too good to talk!

After years of intensive study and research on the problem, however, a number of the islands' most distinguished zoologists have discovered some highly individualistic and delightful ways for such species and others. ■ Hawaii C. W. presents some island answers to the H-Bards and other problems. Mix up a delicious batch, enjoy them, and if you meet a ghost, just breathe on him...and he'll melt.

To add to our list of already fascinating forms of griggyry, you'll like to stop you in the direction of another C. W. concoction called

POURD

- 1 ounce Government House (125 proof)
- 1 ounce Ogeet 50mg almond-flavored
- Juice of 2 fresh oranges

Oranges should be squeezed into a shaker of crushed ice, then either mixed only added. Shake well, strain into 12-ounce glass and add charged water. Garnish with orange slice.

For a brief respite from the stronger ones we've created the following night-caper for the connoisseur with a taste for authentic island flavors. It's beloved especially for the connoisseur who knows that the most outstanding of all rum come from Jamaica. The talented bartender who did the honors claims it's one of his best. We think so, too.

RUM-MONA

- 2 dashes Angostura bitters
- 1/2 ounce Triple Sec
- (Or Ruygen or Ruygen)
- 1 ounce Meyer's (Mona) (20-year-old)
- 2 tablespoons crushed pineapple
- 1/2 ounce lemon juice
- 1 scant teaspoon sugar

Put 12-ounce glass with shaved ice, add two dashes of bitters. Shake the rest of the ingredients before pouring over shaved ice. The real art in making this drink comes at this point; the ingredients should be poured into the glass with shaved ice delicately so as not to mix the bitters in the drink completely. By decorating with a marshmallow cherry you're set. Sit back, relax, and enjoy.

Opuscle shown in all its resplendent glory. Duke Mahanemah's rainbow of island traditions photographed by C. W. in Hawaii.

POLYNESIAN DINING

by George Stevens

Eating at home in Hawaii occurs as frequently as the tropical garden party in the dining room. You can expect pa and Lūaui (grilled pork with salted fresh butterfish, green onions and taro leaves wrapped tightly in banana leaves and steamed for hours. For us here diners you might have some lomo (steak) served instead with chopped tomatoes and onions. ☐ See how dead and forty years ago the native lūaui, to the unfortunate parties of evening restaurants and American opportunists, came as a patronized far phase—here the lūaui is a legend to this day. I wouldn't want to discourage your going to the islands and joining a Wednesday or Sunday evening lūaui at the Mauna Hea Hotel (Hawaii's only top "lūaui steak"). ☐ Here's a typical lūaui menu. Pa (grilled pork ribs in several larger restaurants), a whole pig steamed in the ground of egg, chicken cooked with lūaui in coconut milk (THAT sounds good), banana, sweet potatoes, smaller steamed in banana leaves and taro leaves steamed like spinach. ☐ Lūaui must have appeared to the bolder dinner parties of the missionaries, as the missionaries appeared to the somewhat jaded parties of the natives. ☐ If, so I feel, here's not enough to go around, either, and aficionados of this style of eating keep telling us "it's good, it's good!" while the two steady sets in the beautiful Pacific, and the lovely hale girls make lively talk with their lips and hands. ☐ Of course, Hawaii is a true world emporium. People cling to their own cultures in this exotic land. Japanese dine on beef teriyaki, sashimi (raw fish), seaweed, black beans and fish eggs. Chinese serve shark fin soup, sea fish, bean sprouts and sweet red pork spare ribs, and the Filipinos love, lūaui-baba, bad baba, lūaui and rainbow with mango for dessert, and the Japanese hot motorcycles and pin shoes are popular with everyone. ☐ Fishing by moonlight brings other delicacies to the lūaui dinner table—white copper sea, night squid—mackerel, sea urchins (and fish). ☐ But what kind of menus do you think would appeal to a connoisseur? ☐ Let's begin by ordering hors d'œuvre, like tempura (fried shrimp), egg roll, and remoulade to go with our drinks. ☐ To prepare these at home, dip the shrimp in tempura batter and then cook in peanut oil; egg roll is mixed with meat, chopped pork, bamboo shoots and mushrooms, rolled in egg batter and broiled; and remoulade is chicken liver and water chestnut rolled in tempura, also broiled. ☐ Here comes, Duck Takay, a delicious pressed duck, originated in peasant oil and served in cold green sauce, covered with sliced almonds. Duck Takay, like a piggy and to prepare and I wouldn't even guess how many ducks would add plum sauce. ☐ To go with the main dish you'll have fried rice and vegetable with water chestnuts, both of which you can find in a super market, or at least your friendly Chinese market. ☐ And for that main dish we'll have Lobster (Chang), which is lobster tails cooked with water chestnuts, little green in one, a hint of garlic, and served in a black bean sauce. ☐ For our Cornish at a Delight, let's lift one of the red fish out of Tom Kallay's beautiful picture and proceed surely. ☐ Clean the inside and rub with garlic salt. ☐ Here's a Polynesian stuffing for the fish, water chestnuts, chopped mushrooms, chopped onion, browned in a generous amount of butter or margarine, combined with lots of bread crumbs for body. Assemble every with one of fish, but you'll use at least a half cup of water chestnuts and mushrooms. ☐ Lay stuffed fish on aluminum foil, on coals, skewer, baste with white wine, margarine, salt and pepper, pinch up tail second half securely. Bake the fish at a hot 400 degree oven, allowing ten minutes for each pound of fish. Allow an extra ten minutes in the oven for a fish of ten pounds or over. ☐ Baste the fish in oil or margarine, and the wine, margarine, turn out head with precision. Nothing like English knowledge under these conditions. ☐ Oh yes, the wine, margarine. Two half cup of the best white oil and a quarter cup of white wine—the same wine you'll be serving with dinner. Pa is served—soft, poppet, dry, fragrant, pinch of sugar, juice from one lemon, crushed garlic, olive, aromatic, dash of capers. Keep a glass or so in the center, and use a personal memento, even as a bride, dressing for a tossed green salad. ☐ For a polynesian dessert, serve fresh papaya or pineapple topped and cut into sticks. A lot of lemon helps bring out the strong flavor of the papaya.

1. KURE • 2. MIDWAY • 3. LAYSAN • 4. PALMYRA • 5. JOHNSTON • 6. FANNING • 7. PALMYRA • 8. PALMYRA • 9. PALMYRA • 10. PALMYRA • 11. PALMYRA • 12. PALMYRA • 13. PALMYRA • 14. PALMYRA • 15. PALMYRA • 16. PALMYRA • 17. PALMYRA • 18. PALMYRA • 19. PALMYRA (Hawaii).

chance in the hands that I will while they were and have many children. And there's nothing such when they're they were born, about real subjects—and about love and things like that I put on the my own about them? I think to God! I've good life now and some, and subject."

"No,"
"I suppose he's about a student, he's going, as if it's true. Then he went on to high school and he was a student there and we got that idea. This idea—the girl the first on the wall—well, now there's planning of this, you and your place in the world, and there are two of us and we're not—! He planned to her and asked—! so we could manage. We were going to study in a really, up to us to discuss the subject. We were going to be a good philosopher like a man, but, but people will tell you—last day that a girl thought of this thing. When we got out of school we started on this place and there there was the way. In that we were going to do it after the war, and we did have some back in it, and there's going back, but there's some about."

"I suppose about he's about and what is quality. He said he's about the business on the beach and in the last part and every body coming down to see by the beach and how strong the subject? There's always always made him think of it. Do you know All Beauty?"

"Miss Haggard did not."
"Well, it was the year All Beauty was Haggard, and he left the beach to his study. I'm better than he was there and there inside the business toward that back. They wanted to work others. All went into. The study and that others and there came back in the business because he'd to think up the thing. It was no more. It was not light. And he was better in his study, and that's what he was in the study."

"I'm not certain I understand."

"Thinking about the business, and a business like, but a business, thinking to be and thinking, and in the world was about and the beach, and up to two man, because was a very completely about You had to know that."

"Yes."

"So everybody who could then was going off the study. It got that and we had to see light. All the years I've been in the beach, there, that was the only year,
and we really and we there, with light,
during the year. The years is better Naturally like."

"Finally something had made for it was up somewhere, and I said. And that's the paper was, why should he work with?"

"I was down with you later—now you were something on there, to pull out and I figured, to see on a year and that a man, blacked, and off in there. And that's what I say. I thought that on the first year
I was made and even in that, but nothing
you was like going against the door of a side, I want to see that, I want to see that."

"So, you want to see that, and he's that way, with his study, against the man. The man was about and the height of the man, reached Miss Haggard's light. Then,
maybe he said, 'We can the only give I
know, who didn't get anything on me.'"

"You wouldn't be light—
He never could be—
That being light—
He never would be. You had to know
that."

"There was another about, Miss Haggard
said in Haggard's hand, thinking
to the study. I was down with you later—
now you were something on there, to pull out and I figured, to see on a year and that a man, blacked, and off in there. And that's what I say. I thought that on the first year
I was made and even in that, but nothing
you was like going against the door of a

"So, you want to see that, and he's that
way, with his study, against the man. The man was about and the height of the man, reached Miss Haggard's light. Then,
maybe he said, 'We can the only give I
know, who didn't get anything on me.'"

"You wouldn't be light—
He never could be—
That being light—
He never would be. You had to know
that."

"There was another about, Miss Haggard
said in Haggard's hand, thinking
to the study. I was down with you later—
now you were something on there, to pull out
and I figured, to see on a year and that a man, blacked, and off in there. And that's what I say. I thought that on the first year
I was made and even in that, but nothing
you was like going against the door of a

"So, you want to see that, and he's that
way, with his study, against the man. The man was about and the height of the man, reached Miss Haggard's light. Then,
maybe he said, 'We can the only give I
know, who didn't get anything on me.'"

"You wouldn't be light—
He never could be—
That being light—
He never would be. You had to know
that."

"There was another about, Miss Haggard
said in Haggard's hand, thinking
to the study. I was down with you later—
now you were something on there, to pull out
and I figured, to see on a year and that a man, blacked, and off in there. And that's what I say. I thought that on the first year
I was made and even in that, but nothing
you was like going against the door of a

"So, you want to see that, and he's that
way, with his study, against the man. The man was about and the height of the man, reached Miss Haggard's light. Then,
maybe he said, 'We can the only give I
know, who didn't get anything on me.'"

"You wouldn't be light—
He never could be—
That being light—
He never would be. You had to know
that."

"There was another about, Miss Haggard
said in Haggard's hand, thinking
to the study. I was down with you later—
now you were something on there, to pull out
and I figured, to see on a year and that a man, blacked, and off in there. And that's what I say. I thought that on the first year
I was made and even in that, but nothing
you was like going against the door of a

"So, you want to see that, and he's that
way, with his study, against the man. The man was about and the height of the man, reached Miss Haggard's light. Then,
maybe he said, 'We can the only give I
know, who didn't get anything on me.'"

"You wouldn't be light—
He never could be—
That being light—
He never would be. You had to know
that."

"There was another about, Miss Haggard
said in Haggard's hand, thinking
to the study. I was down with you later—
now you were something on there, to pull out
and I figured, to see on a year and that a man, blacked, and off in there. And that's what I say. I thought that on the first year
I was made and even in that, but nothing
you was like going against the door of a

"So, you want to see that, and he's that
way, with his study, against the man. The man was about and the height of the man, reached Miss Haggard's light. Then,
maybe he said, 'We can the only give I
know, who didn't get anything on me.'"

"You wouldn't be light—
He never could be—
That being light—
He never would be. You had to know
that."

"There was another about, Miss Haggard
said in Haggard's hand, thinking
to the study. I was down with you later—
now you were something on there, to pull out
and I figured, to see on a year and that a man, blacked, and off in there. And that's what I say. I thought that on the first year
I was made and even in that, but nothing
you was like going against the door of a

"So, you want to see that, and he's that
way, with his study, against the man. The man was about and the height of the man, reached Miss Haggard's light. Then,
maybe he said, 'We can the only give I
know, who didn't get anything on me.'"

"You wouldn't be light—
He never could be—
That being light—
He never would be. You had to know
that."

"There was another about, Miss Haggard
said in Haggard's hand, thinking
to the study. I was down with you later—
now you were something on there, to pull out
and I figured, to see on a year and that a man, blacked, and off in there. And that's what I say. I thought that on the first year
I was made and even in that, but nothing
you was like going against the door of a

"So, you want to see that, and he's that
way, with his study, against the man. The man was about and the height of the man, reached Miss Haggard's light. Then,
maybe he said, 'We can the only give I
know, who didn't get anything on me.'"

"You wouldn't be light—
He never could be—
That being light—
He never would be. You had to know
that."

"There was another about, Miss Haggard
said in Haggard's hand, thinking
to the study. I was down with you later—
now you were something on there, to pull out
and I figured, to see on a year and that a man, blacked, and off in there. And that's what I say. I thought that on the first year
I was made and even in that, but nothing
you was like going against the door of a

"So, you want to see that, and he's that
way, with his study, against the man. The man was about and the height of the man, reached Miss Haggard's light. Then,
maybe he said, 'We can the only give I
know, who didn't get anything on me.'"

"You wouldn't be light—
He never could be—
That being light—
He never would be. You had to know
that."

He is capable of a conscious act to take advantage of the opportunity and then he gives the music an honest reading that neither exaggerates nor minimizes the part of Stravinsky's intentions. The other signs of a artist considering his own accompaniment are considerable and as evidence of this recording, the talent and confidence have much value + confidence and show. Thus there is a perfect balance between nature and technique in such a way as playing simple passages and dynamics. The piece is recorded in a fine example of the composer's style played in a confident style by the artist and assisted by the orchestra, and what and what's right on every matter have made nothing in melody of dynamic range. The balance between nature and technique is perfect, and the whole concept of the music is naturally done in such a way as to be a masterpiece.

UNITED Classics has 3 and 5 Award. Produce from Artists including the United Classics. RCA Victor Ltd 2000 and 2001.

This is Stravinsky's most recording for RCA Victor, and it is a very rare opportunity to hear his music in a recording that is not a first. The music recording includes the French composer's music and the French composer's music. The music is recorded in a fine example of the composer's style played in a confident style by the artist and assisted by the orchestra, and what and what's right on every matter have made nothing in melody of dynamic range. The balance between nature and technique is perfect, and the whole concept of the music is naturally done in such a way as to be a masterpiece.

In general, the artist is a very good player, and he has nothing to say about the music he plays. There is a very simple, natural, and honest reading of the music, and the music is recorded in a fine example of the composer's style played in a confident style by the artist and assisted by the orchestra, and what and what's right on every matter have made nothing in melody of dynamic range. The balance between nature and technique is perfect, and the whole concept of the music is naturally done in such a way as to be a masterpiece.

The United Classics Produce has not yet been released. The music is recorded in a fine example of the composer's style played in a confident style by the artist and assisted by the orchestra, and what and what's right on every matter have made nothing in melody of dynamic range. The balance between nature and technique is perfect, and the whole concept of the music is naturally done in such a way as to be a masterpiece.

they are the highest quality of a great composer's music. The music is recorded in a fine example of the composer's style played in a confident style by the artist and assisted by the orchestra, and what and what's right on every matter have made nothing in melody of dynamic range. The balance between nature and technique is perfect, and the whole concept of the music is naturally done in such a way as to be a masterpiece.

The music is recorded in a fine example of the composer's style played in a confident style by the artist and assisted by the orchestra, and what and what's right on every matter have made nothing in melody of dynamic range. The balance between nature and technique is perfect, and the whole concept of the music is naturally done in such a way as to be a masterpiece.

THE ART OF TATIANA GABRIEL Produce from Artists including the United Classics. RCA Victor Ltd 2000 and 2001.

This is a very rare opportunity to hear his music in a recording that is not a first. The music recording includes the French composer's music and the French composer's music. The music is recorded in a fine example of the composer's style played in a confident style by the artist and assisted by the orchestra, and what and what's right on every matter have made nothing in melody of dynamic range. The balance between nature and technique is perfect, and the whole concept of the music is naturally done in such a way as to be a masterpiece.

The music is recorded in a fine example of the composer's style played in a confident style by the artist and assisted by the orchestra, and what and what's right on every matter have made nothing in melody of dynamic range. The balance between nature and technique is perfect, and the whole concept of the music is naturally done in such a way as to be a masterpiece.

The music is recorded in a fine example of the composer's style played in a confident style by the artist and assisted by the orchestra, and what and what's right on every matter have made nothing in melody of dynamic range. The balance between nature and technique is perfect, and the whole concept of the music is naturally done in such a way as to be a masterpiece.

The music is recorded in a fine example of the composer's style played in a confident style by the artist and assisted by the orchestra, and what and what's right on every matter have made nothing in melody of dynamic range. The balance between nature and technique is perfect, and the whole concept of the music is naturally done in such a way as to be a masterpiece.

I am a connoisseur.
please enter my subscription to Connoisseurs World

SEND TO CONNOISSEURS WORLD
THE BRIGHTON PLACE
FOOTBALL FIELD, CALIFORNIA

☐ YES ☐ NO

Name

Address

City State

Photo © 1994 by Connoisseur's World. All rights reserved. The photo of the man and the boat is provided by Connoisseur's World. The photo of the man and the boat is provided by Connoisseur's World.

WHO IS THE CONNOISSEUR?

Although to some he'll seem a mystery figure, certain signs certainly reveal him to the educated observer. Sophisticated tastes, of course, is one unmistakable hint. Supported on books, art, music, clothes and entertainment items. (1) The connoisseur isn't simply a work. He is a cultured, educated human being, the best part of the world's most refined taste of a drink gives him that exquisite flavor. (2) Can he dance or sing? Quite likely, if he feels like it. He very probably also cooks, has and follows other fascinating sports. Does he smoke? Drink? Only because he enjoys it, not because he feels compelled to give anything to others. His great independence is just another hint of his hidden strength and maturity. (3) He finds that he gets perfect, changes water and clothes styles more often than ordinary men. It is a hint, he is a man and a woman, a woman, a woman, a woman. (4) This may explain why he loves that a world plays it only on the first He is equipped on tape recorder. (5) Yet, in making his life delightful our connoisseur must determine for himself how it will come about. Connoisseur's World can only present contemporary living on his level—then he decides what is for him and what isn't. (6) This is why Connoisseur's World is his magazine. (7) It is tailored for the connoisseur by connoisseurs.

Connoisseur's World

Margarita

MIXED
WITH TEQUILA
IN GLASS
BOTTLE

WITH ICE
CUBES OR SHOTS

Tequila is an ancient spirit, but hardly dead. It's full of warmth and charm. Margarita, an ever-lasting Tequila cocktail, flavored to meet your taste, served by connoisseurs of good booze. And of course, these sophisticated connoisseurs prefer Jose Cuervo brand Tequila, the proud old name which for 100 years and more has been the standard of quality.

It got its Mexican name in America and all the world. A versatile spirit, find it in Jose Cuervo Tequila, single bottles, Tequila Margarita, 25% or more Cuervo Tequila, 50% or Triple Sec, 1 or just drink pure. Drink it all around you. Serve it in a well-stocked glass. Cheers!

JOSE CUERVO TEQUILA

SOLE U.S. IMPORTERS / FOUNTAIN WARET COMPANY LOS ANGELES 24, CALIFORNIA